

SPECIAL NEEDS YOUTH BASKETBALL CAMP

FOR:

BOYS & GIRLS
Ages 6 - 12

WHEN:

3 SATURDAYS
May 1st, 8th,
and 15th, 2010
2 - 4pm

PARENTS:

Has your special needs child ever played basketball?

Has your son or daughter ever watched a basketball game and told you that he would like to play, but feels he/she cannot because of their disability?

Has your child played in a regular basketball game, yet been discouraged due to being unable to keep pace?

Here is a great opportunity for special needs youngsters ages 6-12 to participate in athletics!

We are offering a 3-day, six-hour Basketball Camp on Saturday afternoons in May.

The camp is specially tailored for all special needs boys and girls, ages 6 - 12 who want to learn some basketball fundamentals and team concepts in a supportive, positive, fun environment along with other young people with similar needs.

COME AND JOIN IN!

No previous basketball experience is necessary - you can start to grow and be successful along with other special needs athletes. Campers will be exposed to modified dribbling, passing, shooting skills and team concepts.
